ABSTRACT

States that they were hitherto paying octroi duty only on cocoanuts. In addition to this the taluk authorities have proclaimed that Govt have passed orders requiring them to pay duty on betel leaf tobacco and cocoanuts Except Officials, all the people of the town are engaged in garden-cultivation paying house tax ranging from 1 Rs to 5 Rs, cart tax at the rate of 2 Rs per cart and trade tax when selling

MGCPB—1,000—31-1-02 to betel leaves produced in their Gardens, on Sunte days, at the rate of 4 Rs per head.

They also pay a duty of 13 annas on every Maund of Arecanut produce of their gardens, and a Candayam of 8 Rs on every acre of their gardens.
As their town is adjacent to British territories, the levy of duty on these 3 articles, places many inconveniences in the way of their going to the neighbouring Sandies for selling their produce. This levy benefits Govt, but is far from being so to myds, Pray that the octroi levied on cloths may be confirmed, the duty levied on the above said 3 articles being abolished as has been done in Davangere & Mokkalmuru Taluks
